

SOUP FOR THE SOUL

Numbers 6:24-26 "The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace (Shalom)."

How do we find Shalom, wholeness, or peace in a fragmented world?

Rabbi Abby Jacobson has been the Rabbi of Emmanuel Synagogue in Oklahoma City since Aug. 2009. She grew up on the East Coast of the United States and obtained an undergraduate degree in International Relations from the George Washington University. She then moved to Jerusalem, Israel, to attend the Conservative Yeshiva for two years.

She received her rabbinic ordination, along with a Master's degree in Hebrew Letters, from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, New York City, in 2009.

She is also the current president (and long-time board member) of the Interfaith Alliance of Oklahoma.

We invite you to a discussion led by Rabbi Jacobson on March 10, 2019.

Shalom (שלום) is the Hebrew word for "Peace", but there is so much more to this word than can be captured in the English translation "peace". The root word of Shalom means "wholeness." According to Strong's Hebrew Dictionary the root also means to be complete, to make amends, or to be safe. Something that sounds like a simple word is at the heart, something beautifully complicated. I ask the question though, in today's fragmented world, how are we seeking shalom? Join us during the season of Lent to explore Shalom from various perspectives.
